

High-speed Internet & Email on your laptop

BlueSaffron Mobile Connect 3G Card™

This neat little wireless datacard keeps you connected around the clock so you always have your usual business communication channels with you. Wherever possible, it automatically uses a super-fast 3G connection instead of GPRS.

Who uses it?

The datacard is powerful enough to meet the needs of individuals, small and large companies.

What can you do with it?

Send & receive e-mail
Browse the Web Access your company network & applications
Send & receive text messages
Chat using instant messages
Monitor your usage

Security

The card offers maximum security and privacy for remotely accessing corporate networks.

Always Connected

A great feature of this card is that you can stay connected around the clock - but you only pay for what you send and receive. You never have to think about opening and closing connections!

What is it?

The small Vodafone Mobile Connect 3G/GPRS datacard fits neatly into your laptop to give you high-speed wireless access to the Internet and your company e-mail and applications, so you can work effectively while you're out of the office.

High-speed Connectivity

It is up to 7 times faster than fixed line dial-up. You will enjoy significantly higher mobile data speeds where there is 3G coverage. If you are outside the range of 3G coverage, the service automatically switches to the Vodafone UK GPRS data network.

Easy to Use

You don't need to use your mobile phone to connect and set-up is easy. The card comes with 'Dashboard' software that lets you control and monitor your usage.
